

Curriculum Vitae

Catie Foley
McKeating Actuarial Services, Inc.
www.mckeating-actuarial.com

Education and Professional Service

2006 to 2009	Bachelor of Mathematics degree, with distinction Carleton University
2012 to 2013	Bachelor of Education degree, Intermediate/Secondary Memorial University of Newfoundland
2020	Fellow, Society of Actuaries (specialty track: pensions) Fellow, Canadian Institute of Actuaries
2023 to 2024	Member, CIA Education and Assessments Subcommittee for the Associate of the CIA (ACIA) examination track
2024 to present	Vice-Chair, CIA ACIA Education and Assessments Subcommittee

Employment Experience

2007 to 2009	Pension Assistant, Carleton University
2010 to 2011	Secondary Mathematics Teacher Colegio Decroly Americano Guatemala City, Guatemala
2013 to 2015	Secondary Mathematics Teacher Newfoundland & Labrador English School District Nain (Labrador) and St. John's
2015 to 2023	Actuarial Analyst, then Associate, and then Senior Actuarial Consultant with the national employee benefits consulting firm of TELUS Health (formerly LifeWorks / Morneau Shepell)
2022 to 2024	Actuarial Sciences Instructor, University of New Brunswick (contract position)
2022 to present	Actuarial Sciences Instructor, Dalhousie University
2023 to present	Actuary for McKeating Actuarial Services, Inc., specialists in expert actuarial evidence

Speaking Engagements

July 2024	Pension Valuation Approaches and Division Options from Sea to Shining Sea National Family Law Program, Halifax
September 2024	What happened in 2021? Analysis into COVID-19's Effect on Recent Census Earnings Data CIA Actuarial Evidence Seminar, Montreal