

Curriculum Vitae

Kelley McKeating
McKeating Actuarial Services, Inc.
www.mckeating-actuarial.com

Education and Professional Service

1980 to 1985	Earned Honours Bachelor of Mathematics degree, Co-op Actuarial Science major, University of Waterloo
1995	Completed examinations of the Society of Actuaries (specialty track: pensions) and Fellowship Admissions Course. Awarded the designations of FSA – Fellow, Society of Actuaries, and FCIA – Fellow, Canadian Institute of Actuaries.
1999 to 2007	SOA Retirement Systems Research Committee (Chair from 2003 to 2005)
2003 to 2004	SOA Retirement Systems Practice Advancement Committee
2005/2007/2008	SOA Pension Section Council
2006 to 2008	CIA Task Force to Develop Skills and Knowledge Inventories to Support Members' Continuing Professional Development (Actuarial Evidence Representative)
2012 to 2013	Chair, CIA Task Force on the Fair Market Value of Life Insurance for Ownership Transfer and Related Purposes
2011 to 2015	Chair, CIA Committee on Actuarial Evidence
2014 to 2016	CIA Public Positions Committee (Vice-chair 2015-2016)
2019 to present	Actuarial Standards Board Designated Group for the Review of the Actuarial Standards of Practice for Actuarial Evidence (Chair from 2020 to present)
2020 to 2021	FSRA (Ontario's pension regulator) Technical Advisory Committee for Family Law Pension Matters

Employment Experience

1986-1992	Actuarial Analyst and then Actuarial Assistant at Prudential Assurance Company Limited. Assignments included pension plan valuations and pricing of group annuities.
1992-1995	Instructor and Director of the Actuarial Consulting Center at The University of Iowa. Consulting projects included actuarial legal evidence assignments.
1995-1998	Product Actuary for non-participating life insurance at London Life Insurance Company.
1998-2004	Senior Consultant and then Principal with the national employee benefits consulting firm of Morneau Sobeco (now LifeWorks, formerly Morneau Shepell).
2005-2015	Consulting Actuary in the firm of Dilkes, Jeffery & Associates, specialists in expert actuarial evidence and fair market valuation of insurance policies.
2015	Founded McKeating Actuarial Services, Inc., focused on expert actuarial evidence.
2021	Approximately 4,000 professional reports (civil litigation and family law) prepared for legal evidence purposes to date. Have been accepted as an expert witness by the courts in New Brunswick, Newfoundland & Labrador, Nova Scotia, and Ontario.